

Animal Phylum Matching

Instructions: Draw a line from the Phylum to the organism that matches it. Draw another line from the organism to its description.

Cnidaria

Chordata

Mollusca

Arthropoda

Echinoderm

Annelida

Platyhelminthes

These marine animals have plates with spines
Three body parts, jointed legs, tough exoskeleton
Soft, thin, flat bodies
Soft bodied animals usually have a shell
Long animals divided into segments
Jelly-like animals that have a bell or umbrella shape
Animals that have a notochord that supports the body (or backbone)

Quick Match: For each animal or description listed, name the phylum it is associated with:

1. Cow _____
2. Lobster _____
3. Leech _____
4. Tapeworm _____
5. Sea anemone _____
6. Sea urchin _____
7. Octopus _____
8. Bell or umbrella shaped bodies _____
9. Most have a backbone _____
10. Jointed legs _____
11. Thin, flat bodies _____
12. Soft bodies, some have shells _____
13. Spiny plates _____
14. Exoskeleton _____
15. Segmented, long bodies _____